Question

Remember to ask:

1. Why is this just PERFECT?
2. Your new question

I was amazed at the process that resulted in a vision statement. Most people have not even thought about this. I was excited to have this verbalized and written down; I don't think I would have gotten to this point so easily and so comprehensively without the process contained in this program.

Christine L'Heureux Love you and how this class is so life-changing. You are stirring up my vision and the faith to take action to do it. You are impacting not only us but all the lives we will impact. I love the men and women in this class, too. You all spur me on. Thank you! Thank you, Lord! We love you.

Last night I went to sleep around 9:30 and was awoken about 45 mins. later to "Its A Perfect Day" phone call from my son. After praying, I was ablt to go back to sleep so I deecided to listen to the day's recording from Donna. It took me over two hours to listen to the recording as I would pause it, set the alarms on my phone, lable them, listen some more, pause the recording and pray. Like I said this went on for over two hours. The exciting part is that 1) God gave me the title for my book (checked Amazon there's nothing by that title, so will contact Fiver to have the cover designed), including the sub title, and He confirmed my topic through Donna as she continued talking. I am so excited. I am now dreaming bigger than I ever have. I have my list of what I need to do and God's list of what is beyond my ability to do. And oh yes no more studying and studying I am ready to do this..no I am doing this. 2016 is My Best Year Ever!!!!

Day 11

Key Passage:

It's also like a man going off on an extended trip. He called his servants together and delegated responsibilities. To one he gave five thousand dollars, to another two thousand, to a third one thousand, depending on their abilities. Then he left. Right off, the first servant went to work and doubled his master's investment.

Day 11

The second did the same. But the man with the single thousand dug a hole and carefully buried his master's money.

After a long absence, the master of those three servants came back and settled up with them. The one given five thousand dollars showed him how he had doubled his investment. His master commended him: 'Good work! You did your job well. From now on be my partner.'

Day 11

The servant with the two thousand showed how he also had doubled his master's investment. His master commended him: 'Good work! You did your job well. From now on be my partner.'

The servant given one thousand said, 'Master, I know you have high standards and hate careless ways, that you demand the best and make no allowances for error. I was afraid I might disappoint you, so I found a good hiding place and secured your money. Here it is, safe and sound down to the last cent.'

Day 11

The master was furious. 'That's a terrible way to live! It's criminal to live cautiously like that! If you knew I was after the best, why did you do less than the least? The least you could have done would have been to invest the sum with the bankers, where at least I would have gotten a little interest.'

Day 11

Take the thousand and give it to the one who risked the most. And get rid of this "play-it-safe" who won't go out on a limb.

Throw him out into utter darkness.'

Matthew 25:14-30

Day 11

Key Points:

- *God commends risk. The voice that says, "Play it safe" is not God's voice.
- *God is looking for results. While it's true that God sees our heart, he also sees our results.

Day 11

- * God applauds diligence in the Old and New Testament
- * Lazy hands make for poverty, but diligent hands bring wealth. Proverbs 10:4
- * The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty. Proverbs 21:5

Day 11

- * Faithfulness results in promotion. Notice God made the faithful servants his business partner. That's quite a promotion!
- * For promotion comes neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But God is the judge: he puts down one, and sets up another. Psalm 75:6-7

Day 11

- * Promotion always leads to greater responsibility.
- * The master said, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let's celebrate together!' Matthew 25:23 (NLT)

Day 11

“Hard work beats talent
when talent won’t work hard”

- Tim Tebow

Day 11

Clarifying What's Our Responsibility & What's Not

God CANNOT promote you and give you greater responsibility in His Kingdom if you are bogged down handling other people's responsibilities.

Day 11

Clarifying What's Our Responsibility & What's Not

- * Bear one another's burdens.
Galatians 6:2
- * Baros = Crushing weight.

Day 11

Clarifying What's Our Responsibility & What's Not

- * For every man shall bear his own burden.
Galatians 6:5
- * Phortion = “the expected amount of weight every soldier was required to carry in his backpack” It's talking about basic life responsibilities.

Day 11

Clue:

If a person is facing a long-term, on-going problem (more than a couple months), then it likely falls into the category of Phortion. No matter how difficult, that person has to step up and learn a new way of living with God's help...not yours.

Day 11

WARNING!

None of us should be doing for anyone something they should be doing for themselves. Why? Because while we are busy carrying other people's basic responsibilities, two things are happening:

Day 11

First, we are robbing that person of a blessing

God honors and rewards those who behave responsibly. So we are literally blocking the blessings of God from flowing into their lives. We are also preventing the work of perfecting character that's a necessary part of Christian maturity.

Remember: "Adult children" is an oxymoron.

Day 11

Second, when we are carrying other people's responsibilities, we have no time or energy left for those things God has entrusted to us.

God has not anointed you and he will not empower you to do something he hasn't called you to do.

God wants you to work hard. But he wants you to work hard at what HE has called you to do.

Where God calls; God equips.

Day 11

Finally, God says those who don't accept responsibility will be thrown into "utter darkness."

It was referring to that place outside the city gates where the lions prowled around in the darkness, eating the garbage that was thrown outside the walls.

You'll end up in a dark place of regret, self-pity and bitter envy. You don't want to go there.

Day 11

Far better to be diligent, develop your ability, take responsibility and GET RESULTS. Far better to Live Your Best Life.
