Table 1

Name of the person who hurt you	What did they owe you?	What 1 possible response could have resulted in a different outcome?	What's their version of events? (Remembe r to record yourself acting as their defense attorney)	How might God repay the debt?	Check this column when you have taken the person to the cross and allowed Jesus to say, "Let the blame be on me."	Note the pain that may have been driving that person.	Draw a Cross next to the name of any person who might be a genuine villain. Give them completely to God.	Ask God to tell you how he sees each person. Note what He says.	How might this person have been used by God to move you forward into your destiny?	Is there a way forward?	What was my part in the whole sorry mess?
